The Childhood Leukemia Foundation Scholarship

Childhood Leukemia Foundation distributes free support services to thousands of children throughout the United States each year. Each program within the foundation has been designed to help meet the emotional and educational needs of children during and after their cancer battle. The Rutgers chapter of Childhood Leukemia Foundation would like to award a current Rutgers student who is either undergoing or has undergone treatment for any form of cancer.

The Award

One award in the amount of $500 for spring semester of 2016 is anticipated.

Eligibility

1) Must be a full time Rutgers student
2) Must have a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
3) Must be able to show signed documentation of treatment from a healthcare professional or social worker prior to receiving award.
4) Must be able to provide a picture.

Application Process

Please email the attached form below along with a copy of your unofficial transcript and a 500-word-maximum essay describing how your diagnosis has impacted your life and how the scholarship will benefit you to clfrutgers@gmail.com. Please attach a picture of you as well. All the information should be emailed no later than March 1.
